

Round 1)

1) Science: At what temperature does water have maximum density?

4° C

2) Literature: What is the real name of Lord Voldemort?

Tom Marvolo Riddle (I am Lord Voldemort)

3) History: On which island Napoleon died?

St. Helena

4) VIPs: Who is the person in the picture?

Donald Trump

5) Popular films: What kind of animal is Kaa in the film "Jungle book"?

Snake

6) Music: Who create the song "Pour Elise"?

Ludwig van Beethoven

7) Food and drinks: What kind of alcohol does a typical Long Island Iced Tea contain: Name three of them

Long Island Iced tea contains 5 liquors: vodka, tequila, rum, gin and triple sec

8) Europe: When was the European Union established under its current name?

1993 (following the Maastricht Treaty)

Round 2)

1) Science: What is the next smallest measurement after a nanometre?

Pikometre (0,000 000 001mm)

2) Literature: What is the title of the most sold novel ever?

A tale of two cities (Dickens)

3) History: What is the name of the shortest war ever?

The British-Sansibarian war (1896, duration: under 1 hour)

4) VIPs: Who won the first Nobel Peace Prize ever?

Henry Dunant (Established the red cross)

5) Popular films: In which film does Eliza Doolittle learn to talk correctly?

My fair Lady

6) Music: Which popular classic music defines the length of a CD?

9th symphony from Ludwig van Beethoven

7) Food and drinks: In which country should you eat cheese fondue?

Switzerland

8) Europe: Which member of the EU has the highest population?

Germany (82.114.224)

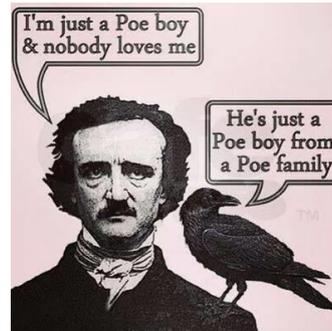

Runde 3)

1) Science: Which “dog” has a very popular role in the evolution-theory?

A “beagle”

2) Literature: This picture alludes to a text written by E.A. Poe. Which text is it?

The Raven (a poem)

3) History: What is the duration of the hundred years' war?

116 years

4) VIPs: Who said “Ich bin ein Berliner”?

J. F. Kennedy

5) Popular films: “I am your father, Luke!”

Starwars

6) Music: What is the beginning of the second verse of “Let it be”?

And when the broken hearted people, Living in the world agree...

7) Food and drinks: What a kind of fruit is a strawberry (in the correct botanical meaning)?

A nut (correct: a collective nut fruit)

8) Europe: Which European town has the most visitors per year?

1st London (19,9 Mio.), 2nd Paris (18 Mio)

Round 4

1) Science: What is the biggest living creature?

A mushroom (armillaria) in the Malheur Nation Forest (Oregon)

2) Literature: What is an enjambement?

A stylistic device, in which the author didn't finish a sentence in one line

3) History: What was the slogan of the French revolution?

Fraternite – egalite - liberte

4) VIPs: What is the normal name of the Pope?

Jorge Mario Bergoglio

5) Popular films: What is the most expensive film ever made?

Pirates of the Caribbean – On stranger tides (403 Mio Dollar)

6) Music: This picture alludes to a popular song. Which song is it?

Queen – bohemian rhapsody

7) Food and drinks: What is NaCl?

Salt

8) Europe: Who was Europe?

A Phoenician princess in the Greek mythology